

Joe Post

205 South Clinton, St. Louis, MI 48880
T: 989-388-1828 E: jpost@nmu.edu

Education

Northern Michigan University
School of Art and Design, Marquette, MI
Bachelor of Fine Arts: Digital Cinema

[2015-2017]

Experience

General

St. Louis Sash and Door window repair, St. Louis, Michigan

It's a window repair and restoration business owned by my dad. I worked here for most of my life and I have seen the inside and out of how to run a business. Working here has given me hands on experience working for and servicing customers for almost 10 years.

[2007-Present]

Independent and Freelance Video Work

Independent Film Production: "When The Old Phone Rings"

Writer, Director, Editor, Cinematographer

Making the movie taught me a lot about what it takes to make a feature film and that collaborating with talented people is the key.

Freelance wedding filming and musicals, contact info available

[2015-16]

Scholastic Awards

Dean's list Northern Michigan University
Fall 2015, Fall 2016

1st place Northern Michigan University Student Art Gallery cinematography focus

Objective/Skills

My goals are to learn from industry professionals to further my knowledge and skills of the craft of story telling.

I am comfortable with many different cameras and camera equipment brands, and can adapt to any equipment and I hope to diversify and expand my skills with any such gear.

References

Gabby McNally, Assistant Professor of Digital Cinema
Northern Michigan University,
School of Art and Design
E: gmcnally@nmu.edu

Daric Christian, Associate Dean &
Director
Northern Michigan University,
School of Art and Design
E: dachrist@nmu.edu

Ben Goward, St. Louis High School
Business Instructor.
P: 989-854-9481
E: bgoward@stlouisschools.net