Bio:

I am Tamarra Thomas, an Impact Producer from the West Michigan area. I grew up in a small village and started my career right after college. With over 8 years of experience, I have been working in the creative field for quite some time.

As a dedicated professional, I am passionate about making a difference in the community and helping individuals. My specialties include project impact, awareness, brand development, social media growth, diversity and inclusion, equality in the workplace, and amplifying voices through storytelling.

I take pride in my ability to leverage my expertise and knowledge to drive positive change and create a lasting impact. Whether it's developing impactful campaigns or collaborating with like-minded individuals and organizations, I am always striving to make a difference.
