I am a producer, location scout and manager, photographer, writer, and artist, from Detroit. I have worked hundreds of productions, commercials and independent projects in Detroit, LA, NYC, and Paris.

I am a UPM in the DGA and a Location Manager with the Teamsters 337 and have experience in Budgeting, Casting and Crew, Location Research and Scouting, Permits and Contracts, and Equipment Rentals.

My photography and video installations have been in a myriad of art shows and galleries and is in the permanent collection of the Detroit Institute of Arts. Portraits include Andy Warhol, Jim Carroll, and Ozzy Osborne, among others. I was nominated for a World Press Review award for the New York Times Magazine and was in Detour magazine's "25th Year Anniversary Exhibition" at Bulgari, in NYC.

I have directed music videos by Dark Red, Thee Kaiprinas, Thief, Thornetta Davis and the Blackman, and Amy Gore and Her Valentines. I started, art directed, and photographed the Detroit webzines, Model D and Metromode.

I wrote and photographed the books, "Things I do in Detroit, a Guidebook to the Coolest Places, by The Nain Rouge", a collection of the greatest places in Detroit, and "Things People Say About Detroit, as Told to The Nain Rouge", a collection of quotes from famous Detroiters.
